AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this first day of July, 2006 by and between Black Hawk County, Iowa, hereinafter referred to as "Employer", and Public, Professional and Maintenance Employees, Local Union 2003, IBPAT, hereinafter called "Union", represents the complete and final agreement on all bargainable issues between the Employer and the Union. Throughout this Agreement wherever the word "Act" appears, this refers to the Iowa Public Employment Relations Act identified as Chapter 20 of the Code of Iowa.

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION

The Employer hereby recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment permitted by the Act for all employees of Black Hawk County with the job classifications of Laundry Worker, Food Service Worker, Food Service Worker Trainee, Cook, Building Cleaner Trainee, Building Cleaner, Building Maintenance Assistant, Building Maintenance Mechanic, Parking Lot Attendant, Driver, Lead Laundry Worker, Lead Building Cleaner and Property Maintenance Assistant, but excluding professional employees, supervisors, and all other persons excluded by Section 4 of the Act, and all other county employees.

ARTICLE 2 SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS

If any provision of this Agreement is subsequently declared by the proper legislative or judicial authority to be unlawful, unenforceable, or not in accordance with applicable statutes or ordinances, all other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect for the duration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 NO STRIKE - NO LOCKOUT

The parties agree to faithfully abide by the applicable provisions of the Act. Neither the Union, its officers or agents, nor any of the employees covered by this Agreement will engage in, encourage, sanction, support, or suggest any strikes, slowdowns, picketing, boycotting, sit-ins, mass resignations, mass absenteeism, the willful absence from one's position, work stoppage, or any such related activities as covered in Section 12 of the Act.

The Employer pledges that it will not engage in a lockout during the term of this Agreement as a result of a labor dispute with the Union.

ARTICLE 4 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

The parties agree that an orderly and expeditious resolution of grievances is desirable. All matters of dispute that may arise between the Employer and an employee or employees regarding the violation, application, or interpretation of the expressed provisions of this Agreement shall be adjusted in accordance with the following procedure:

Informal: An employee shall discuss a complaint or problem orally with his immediate supervisor or his designated representative within six (6) working days following its occurrence in an effort to resolve the problem in an informal manner. However, transfers and job bids will start at Step 2 by the employee notifying the department head affected within twenty-four (24) hours, and having the written grievance presented within two (2) working days.

Grievance Steps:

Step 1: If the oral discussion of the complaint or problem fails to resolve the matter, the aggrieved employee and/or the Union may present a grievance in writing to his immediate supervisor within six (6) working days following the occurrence of the problem. Failure to hold an informal discussion within the six (6) working day period shall not bar the filing of a written grievance. A copy of the grievance shall be forwarded to the Human Resources Director. Within three (3) working days after this Step 1 meeting, the supervisor will answer the grievance in writing.

Step 2: If the supervisor's answer fails to resolve the grievance, the Union and/or the aggrieved employee may, within three (3) working days, present the grievance in writing to the department head. The department head shall, within five (5) working days, meet and discuss the grievance with the aggrieved employee and/or the Union, and then reply in writing within three (3) working days. A copy of the grievance and the department head's answer shall be forwarded to the Human Resources Director.

Step 3: If the department head's answer in Step 2 fails to resolve the grievance, the Union and/or the aggrieved employee may refer the grievance to the Human Resources Director within three (3) working days of the receipt of the Step 2 answer. The Human Resources Director may designate a representative for the bargaining unit to conduct hearings on grievances which do not involve termination or loss of pay issues. Following a meeting with the aggrieved employee and/or the Union, the Human Resources Director shall answer the grievance in writing within seven (7) working days.

Step 4: Any grievance not settled in Step 3 of the grievance procedure may be referred to arbitration provided the referral to arbitration is in writing to the other party, and is made within seven (7) working days after the date of the Human Resources Director's or designated representative's answer given in Step 3.

It is expressly agreed and understood that no employee or the Union shall have the right to compel the arbitration of a grievance without the written consent of the other. An aggrieved employee may elect to not have a union representative present at the grievance meeting(s).

All grievances must be taken up promptly, and awards and settlements thereof shall in no case be made retroactive beyond the date on which the grievance was first presented in written form as provided in Step 1 of the grievance procedure. If a grievance is not presented within the time limits specified in this Article, it shall be considered waived. If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limits, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. A grievance not timely answered by the Employer may automatically be referred to the next highest step unless withdrawn by the employee.

After either party hereto has notified the other of its referral of a case to arbitration, the parties will meet within ten (10) working days after receipt by either party hereto of notice of referral of a case to arbitration to select an arbitrator or to request in writing the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or Iowa Public Employment Relations Board to furnish a suggested list of names of seven (7) arbitrators from which list the parties shall select one (1) arbitrator. Such selection shall be by agreement if possible; otherwise, by the parties alternately eliminating names from the list.

After each party has eliminated the names of three (3) arbitrators from the list, the arbitrator whose name remains on the list shall be accepted by both parties as the arbitrator to hear and decide the pending case.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator will be paid equally by the parties. Each party shall pay its own cost of preparation and presentation for arbitration. No stenographic transcript of the arbitration hearing shall be made unless requested by a party. The cost of stenographic reporting of the hearing shall be borne by the party requesting the same, except that the other party may request a copy of such transcript, in which case the parties shall equally divide the cost of stenographic reporting and of the transcripts. The arbitrator shall have no power to change, alter, detract from, or add to the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding on both parties.

All grievance and arbitration meetings under this Article are to be held in private and are not open to the public.

ARTICLE 5

SENIORITY

Section 1, Definition: Seniority shall be defined in three (3) ways:

- A. Bargaining Unit: The length of continuous service in the bargaining unit since the employee's last date of hire. If employees have the same seniority date, their seniority shall be determined in the following manner:
 - 1. The employee with the greatest amount of continuous prior service with Black Hawk County shall have the greatest seniority.
 - 2. If none of the employees have continuous prior service, the employee with the highest last four digits of his social security number will have the greatest seniority for that day.
- B. Pro-rata Eligibility for Permanent Part-Time Employees: A permanent part-time employee shall have performed at least twenty-four (24) consecutive months of county service at the time he becomes a full-time employee to be eligible for pro-rated seniority. When a permanent part-time employee becomes a full-time employee, the employee's full-time seniority shall be fifty percent (50%) of his total county service which shall establish a date of hire to be used for determining longevity and vacation benefits.
- C. Temporary Employees: Persons employed in a temporary vacancy for a period of four (4) months or less shall be considered temporary employees and are not considered members of the bargaining unit. A temporary employee shall become a probationary employee upon four (4) months and one (1) day within a job classification.

Section 2, Probationary Period: A new employee shall serve a probationary period of six (6) months, but benefits will be available after ninety (90) continuous calendar days. Upon completion of the probationary period, the employee shall be placed on the seniority list, and his seniority shall be determined from his date of employment. Employees may be terminated for any reason during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance procedure.

Section 3, Job Vacancies:

A. Permanent vacancies and positions in newly-created job classifications in the bargaining unit shall be filled in the following order per the procedures prescribed in Article 5 (Seniority) and Article 13 (Transfers):

1. Voluntary Transfer of current Unit employee - Article 13, Section 1
2. In-House Shift bid in that classification - Article 5, Section 4
3. In-House Station Bid in that classification (voluntary by Department Head) - Article 5, Section 4
4. Bid by current Unit employee through Human Resources Office - Article 5, Section 4
5. Recall of laid off Unit employee - Article 5, Section 5
6. Involuntary transfer of current Unit employee - Article 13, Section 2

B. An employee who is bumped out of a job classification shall have recall rights for one (1) year to his/her prior position before application of the above procedure, if the bumped employee has greater seniority than all transfer requests and bidders. (Example: Due to layoff, a Food Service Worker position is eliminated. The least senior Food Service Worker elects to bump a Food Service Worker Trainee position. This bumped employee has recall rights for one year to a Food Service Worker position before any Food Service Worker position is filled in the order specified in Section 3-A if the employee has greater seniority than all transfer requests and bidders for the Food Service Worker position.)

Section 4, Bidding:

A. No permanent vacancy or newly-created job classification in the bargaining unit shall be filled by hire until such vacancy has been posted by the Human Resources Department on all union bulletin boards for a period of three (3) working days, and present employees in the bargaining unit have had the opportunity to apply for such positions and have their applications considered. All postings shall include the shift or office where applicable. Notification shall be given to all unsuccessful applicants by the Human Resources Department within five (5) working days following a selection. A copy of all job postings shall be mailed to the person designated by the Union's business representative. If such postings are not posted in all facilities as required members of the bargaining unit. A temporary employee shall become a probationary employee upon four (4) months and one (1) day within a job classification.

Section 2, Probationary Period: A new employee shall serve a probationary period of ninety (90) continuous calendar days. Upon completion of the probationary period, the employee shall be placed on the seniority list, and his seniority shall be determined from his date of employment. Employees may be terminated for any reason during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance procedure.

Section 3, Job Vacancies:

A. Permanent vacancies and positions in newly-created job classifications in the bargaining unit shall be filled in the following order per the procedures prescribed in Article 5 (Seniority) and Article 13 (Transfers):

1. Voluntary Transfer of current Unit employee - Article 13, Section 1
2. In-House Shift bid in that classification - Article 5, Section 4
3. In-House Station Bid in that classification (voluntary by Department Head) - Article 5, Section 4
4. Bid by current Unit employee through Human Resources Office - Article 5, Section 4
5. Recall of laid off Unit employee - Article 5, Section 5
6. Involuntary transfer of current Unit employee - Article 13, Section 2

B. An employee who is bumped out of a job classification shall have recall rights for one (1) year to his/her prior position before application of the above procedure, if the bumped employee has greater seniority than all transfer requests and bidders. (Example: Due to layoff, a Food Service Worker position is eliminated. The least senior Food Service Worker elects to bump a Food Service Worker Trainee position. This bumped employee has recall rights for one year to a Food Service Worker position before any Food Service Worker position is filled in the order specified in Section 3-A if the employee has greater seniority than all transfer requests and bidders for the Food Service Worker position.)

Section 4, Bidding:

A. No permanent vacancy or newly-created job classification in the bargaining unit shall be filled by hire until such vacancy has been posted by the Human Resources Department on all union bulletin boards for a period of three (3) working days, and present employees in the bargaining unit have had the opportunity to apply for such positions and have their applications considered. All postings shall include the shift or office where applicable. Notification shall be given to all unsuccessful applicants by the Human Resources Department within five (5) working days following a selection. A copy of all job postings shall be mailed to the person designated by the Union's business representative. If such postings are not posted in all facilities as required above, such posting shall be posted for an additional one (1) working day in that facility. If there are no qualified applicants within Unit III, the Employer shall next consider all applicants who are current county employees. All other qualified applicants may then be considered after said notifications are provided to those applicants in Unit III. In determining the successful applicant, qualifications shall be the primary consideration. Where qualifications are equal, bargaining unit seniority shall govern. The date of hire will be used in lieu of seniority for part-time employees. An employee bidding into a different classification shall be given up to thirty (30) working days to satisfactorily perform the job. During the thirty (30) working day trial period, the employee shall receive actual training directly related to the work of the job. If such employee fails to satisfactorily perform the job within said period, he shall be returned to his former position without loss of seniority.

- B. An employee who accepts the bid shall not be eligible to bid on another vacancy for six (6) months from the effective date of the new position.

Section 5, Reduction in Force:

- A. When the work force is to be reduced through either a reduction in the number of employees or the annual hours of work by the employees, the reductions shall be accomplished in the following order:
1. The present work force will be reduced through attrition by elimination of vacancies created by retiring or terminated employees.
 2. Prior to any layoff of the present work force, all vacant positions will be laid off.
 3. The present work force will be reduced through utilization of the layoff procedure in Paragraph B of this Section.
 4. If it is necessary to reduce full-time employees' hours of work after utilization of the layoff procedure in Paragraph B, such reduction in hours will not become effective until all temporary, probationary, and part-time employees in all bargaining unit job classifications have been laid off from the bargaining unit. Such positions shall not be restored until after all full-time employees' reduced hours are restored.
 5. If a reduction in full-time employees' hours is necessary, such hours reduction will be accomplished in the following manner:
 - a. Work hours shall be reduced by job classifications in order of seniority, beginning with the employee with the least bargaining unit seniority in the affected job classification.
 - b. An employee whose hours are reduced shall have the option of accepting the reduction in hours or bumping the employee with the least bargaining unit seniority in an equal or lower pay grade, provided the employee has greater seniority than the person being bumped. An employee who is bumped retains his bumping rights.

- c. A full-time position which has its hours reduced shall continue to be considered a full-time position for all collective bargaining benefits and accrual of seniority.
 - d. Any full-time employee whose hours are reduced shall be paid at the overtime rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of the number of hours for which that employee was scheduled pursuant to the posted schedule.
 - e. Any restoration of reduced hours shall be done in the reverse order from which they were reduced.
- B. When the working force is to be reduced, employees in the effected job classification will be laid off in the following order: 1) temporary; 2) probationary; 3) part-time; 4) full-time. The employee with the least bargaining unit seniority in the classification affected shall be the first removed. The employee removed can then replace the employee with the least bargaining unit seniority in a lower pay grade job classification provided the employee is qualified to perform the work and has greater seniority than the person being bumped. An employee who is bumped retains his bumping rights. Employees may accept layoff rather than exercise their bumping rights. No regular full-time employee shall be laid off in any classification until all temporary, probationary, and part-time employees in the classification have been removed. Temporary and probationary employees have no recall rights. An employee on layoff has no transfer or bidding rights.
- C. Upon recall from layoff, employees will be returned to work in reverse order from which they were laid off, if they are qualified to perform the work available. Refusal to accept recall to a job classification other than the employee's original job classification shall not cause a forfeiture of the employee's recall rights. Employees to be recalled shall be notified as far in advance as possible by notice in writing sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last address shown on the Employer's records.

Section 6, Loss of Seniority: An employee shall lose his seniority, and the employment relationship shall be broken and terminated as follows:

- A. Employee quits.
- B. Employee is discharged for proper cause.
- C. Engaging in other work without prior approval while on leave of absence, or giving false reason for obtaining leave of absence.
- D. Two (2) consecutive days of absence without notice to the Employer, unless evidence satisfactory to the Employer is presented showing the employee was physically unable to give notice.
- E. Failure to report for work upon expiration of a leave of absence.
- F. Failure to report for work within five (5) working days after being notified to return following layoff when notice is given as provided in Section 5 above.

- G. When continuous period of layoff exceeds one (1) year.
- H. Employee retires.

It is the employee's responsibility to keep the Employer informed of his current address and phone number.

ARTICLE 6

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 1: Upon giving reasons satisfactory to the Employer, an employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay for a period or periods, not to exceed one (1) continuous year, including unpaid FMLA leaves. Requests for such leave shall be made in writing to the employee's department head and shall not be unreasonably denied. An employee shall not be required to have exhausted all accrued casual days and sick leave benefits in order to be eligible to receive an unpaid leave of absence.

Section 2: An employee granted a leave of absence shall not be eligible for fringe benefits, holiday pay, or accrue retirement or sick leave during the period of such leave except as provided by state law, and premiums for insurance normally paid by the Employer will be paid by the employee if the leave is thirty (30) days or longer, if the employee elects to continue coverage. Except, however, the Employer shall pay the cost of insurance coverage, whatever insurance coverage (either family or single) the employee had at the time of his/her work-related injury for an employee who is on leave of absence due to work-related injury or illness.

Section 3: If the employee fails to report for work upon the expiration of his leave of absence, he shall be terminated.

Section 4: Upon return from a leave of absence, the employee shall return to his former job if physically qualified and the position is vacant, or to another position in accordance with seniority, qualifications, and ability.

Section 5: Employees on approved, unpaid leaves of absence of fifteen (15) days or longer will have the anniversary date adjusted by the total number of days that they are on approved leave.

Section 6: Federal Family and Medical Leave Act: An employee who has at least one (1) year of service, and has worked at least 1,250 hours in the last twelve (12) months, may request and be granted twelve (12) weeks of unpaid leave during any twelve (12) month period because of :

- A. Birth of child.
- B. Placement for adoption or foster child.
- C. Care of child, spouse or parent with a serious health condition.
- D. Employees own serious health condition.

An employee who requests and is granted a leave of absence pursuant to the 1993 Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (hereinafter called FMLA) may use accrued paid leave (i.e. sick leave, vacation, compensatory time, personal leave) that the employee had accumulated prior to the start of the leave of absence. The employee shall designate in writing to the Employer the type and amount of paid leave to be used. The Employer may not designate leave taken pursuant to the Agreement which was not requested under the FMLA as FMLA leave.

An employee who is on a paid FMLA leave of absence shall continue to accrue seniority under the bargaining unit contract. An employee who is on an unpaid FMLA leave of absence shall be treated for seniority purposes as if the employee was on an Unpaid Leave of Absence under the bargaining unit contract. In addition to the twelve (12) weeks of FMLA leave, employees shall be eligible to receive a leave of absence pursuant to Article 6 of the collective bargaining agreement under the terms and conditions established by the Agreement.

During the twelve (12) week FMLA leave, the Employer shall continue coverage of all health, dental and life insurance benefits as if the employee was actively at work. Paid holidays occurring during a FMLA in which the employee has designated paid leave shall be treated as any other paid leave.

ARTICLE 7

UNION LEAVE

Employees designated as stewards or bargaining team members by the Union shall receive a paid leave of absence as Union Leave for the employee's hours of work necessary to attend joint collective bargaining negotiations, mediations, fact-findings, interest arbitrations, or steps of the grievance procedure with the Employer.

INJURY REPORTING

In case of injury due to work or incurred while at work all such injuries must be reported to the Employer on the same day the injury is sustained or first becomes known to the employee. Nothing in this provision shall be construed to relieve the employee from his obligation to complete an incident report in accordance with departmental rules.

ARTICLE 9

Section 2, Shifts Defined: The first shift shall be any shift commencing between 6:00 a.m. and 1:59 p.m. The second shift shall be any shift commencing between 2:00 p.m. and 9:59 p.m. The third shift shall be any shift commencing on or after 10:00 p.m. Flex-time may vary the above time if agreed to by the department head and the employee. The flex time will not cause any increase or loss of wages or benefits. Employees shall not be required to furnish their own replacement in order to have a time off request approved.

Section 3, Shift Differential: Full-time employees will receive the following shift differentials in addition to their regular straight time hourly rates:

Section 6, Overtime:

Full-Time Employees: Overtime shall be paid for at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee's straight-time hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) per day or on the employee's regularly scheduled day off. To be eligible for time and one-half (1 1/2) when an employee agrees to work on the employee's regularly scheduled day off, the employee shall not have utilized sick leave during the employee's work week.

Part-Time Employees: Overtime for part-time employees shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) the employee's straight-time rate for all hours actually worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in a work week.

ARTICLE 10 SICK LEAVE

Section 1, Accumulation: Each full-time regular employee shall accrue sick leave at the rate of one and one-fourth (1 1/4) days per month of continuous employment. The accrual shall be credited the first pay check of the following month. Maximum accumulation shall be one hundred twenty (120) days.

Section 2, Use of Sick Leave: Accumulated sick leave may be used for any of the following:

- F. Up to three days (24 hours) if an employee is unable to work due to a work-related injury.

Section 3, Procedure of Sick Leave Usage: In lieu of the step system or any other no fault attendance/absenteeism policy, whenever an employee elects to use earned sick leave for the reasons specified in Section 2 (except for items E and F) of this Article, the employee's earned sick leave account will be charged sick leave according to the procedure stated below. Use of sick leave for worker compensation or Federal Family and Medical Leave purposes are exempt from this procedure.

- A. If the requested sick leave is one of the first six (6) occurrences during the fiscal year, the employee will be paid sick leave for each consecutive day of the occurrence as long as the employee had sufficient sick leave in his account. A sick leave occurrence is defined as utilization of sick leave for scheduled work time. A single occurrence may include more than one work day as long as the days off are consecutive scheduled days off work.
- B. If the requested sick leave exceeds the sixth (6th) occurrence, the employee will be paid for the occurrence beginning with the second consecutive day of the occurrence. The first day of the occurrence shall be unpaid. Casual days and/or accumulated vacation may not be used for the first day of the occurrence.
- C. Beginning with the seventh occurrence:
 - 1. The first day of sick leave is always unpaid unless the employee or the employee's spouse or child is admitted for either inpatient or outpatient care as a patient in the hospital. The Employer reserves the right to verify hospitalization.

2. The second day and all subsequent days may be paid or unpaid as determined by the Employer. Payment of these sick leave days shall not be denied in a manner that is unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious.
- D. An employee who believes they have been unjustly denied sick leave pay may grieve pursuant to an expedited grievance procedure. The grievance shall begin by the employee or the Union meeting with the Human Resources Director within three (3) working days of the decision by the Employer to deny sick leave pay or discipline the employee, and the Human Resources Director will issue an answer to the grievance at the meeting. If the Human Resources Director's response fails to resolve the grievance, the grievance may be referred in writing to arbitration within one (1) working day of the meeting. If the grievance is referred to arbitration, the arbitration will be conducted by Jim McClimon, an administrative law judge of the Iowa Public Employment Relations Board, and that decision shall be final and binding. The standard of review used by the arbitrator shall be just cause. Arbitration will be conducted within seven (7) working days of the arbitrator receiving written notice unless both parties and the arbitrator agree to waive the meeting date. If Mr. McClimon is unable to conduct the arbitration, another administrative law judge mutually agreed upon by both the Employer and the Union will conduct the arbitration. Any expenses for the arbitration shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses. The parties agree to equally divide the actual cost to the Iowa PERB for each arbitration hearing. There shall be no additional charge if more than one case is heard at one hearing.
- E. Employees hired after July 1 and after completing the probationary period shall have their first six (6) paid occurrences pro-rated at the rate of two (2) per quarter starting on the first day of a full quarter. This pro-rating is effective according to the first day of a quarter that the employee is at work either in a probationary or permanent status.

Section 4, Verification: The Employer reserves the right to require satisfactory proof of illness which may include a physician's statement or other evidence. The required proof of illness may be for an absence of any length of time; however, it shall be mandatory for every employee to have in writing a doctor's certification for any excused absence or illness beyond two (2) days.

Section 5, Notification: When absences due to sickness are necessitated, the employee shall notify the supervisor at least two (2) hours before he is scheduled to begin work. All notification is to be made by the employee except in case of emergency. Failure to properly notify the supervisor shall result in the employee being considered absent without leave and subject to disciplinary action.

Section 6, Conversion: Employees with 960 hours of sick leave shall convert an additional twenty (20) hours of sick leave to eight (8) hours of casual leave. These casual hours may be carried over for up to one (1) year. Any accrued sick leave casual day (s) shall be forfeited upon termination.

Section 7, Sick Leave Bonus: Regular full-time employees who do not use any sick leave for each quarterly period of the fiscal year (i.e. July 1 through September 30, October 1 through December 31, etc.) shall accrue four (4) hours of casual time. The accrued casual time must be used within one (1) year from when the hours were earned.

Section 8, Probationary Employees: Employees are not eligible for sick leave benefits during the first ninety (90) days of employment. However, employees shall be credited with accrued sick leave as of the date of employment.

Section 9, Date of Employment: For the purpose of this chapter, an employee who begins his employment on or before the fifteenth day of the month will be credited with sick leave for the entire month. An employee who begins his employment after the fifteenth (15th) day of the month will begin to accrue sick leave on the first day of the month following his employment.

Section 10, Catastrophic Illness Donation:

An employee may voluntarily donate accumulated vacation for use as sick leave by a co-worker whose sick leave is exhausted due to catastrophic illness of the employee or their immediate family (within the limitations of Section 2) under the following conditions:

- A. To be eligible for time donation, the affected employee must have exhausted all paid leave.
- B. The donating employee must notify the Human Resources Department in writing specifying the co-worker, the amount of vacation to be donated, and the date and time of day of the donation. The donating employee may not retract the donation.
- C. The transfer of hours from the donating employee represents a straight exchange of hours, not pay. Donated time must be given, and will be accounted for in one-hour increments and will be paid at the wage rate of the employee who uses it. The employee shall receive no more compensation than would have been earned while actively at work.
- D. Donated time must be used within thirty (30) working days of the effective date of the donation. Unless the illness extends beyond the thirty-working day period, any unused portion of donated vacation will be returned to donating employees in the reverse order in which it was donated, with the most recent donation being first returned.
- E. If the Human Resources Department determines that previous donations would provide the co-worker with enough sick leave for the next thirty working days, additional donations shall not be accepted.
- F. The Employer's obligation is limited to accounting for donated vacation for which the department has written notice. Hours donation is totally voluntary, and donations shall not be solicited by the Employer.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND WAIVER CLAUSE

- A. This Agreement supersedes and cancels all previous agreements and practices between the Employer and employees unless expressly stated to the contrary herein, and together with the concurrent letters of understanding, supplemental hereto, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and concludes collective bargaining for its term, except as provided herein.
- B. The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Union for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and without reservation, waive the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement.

EFFECT OF JOB CLASSIFICATION CHANGES

Job classifications for unit employees are set forth in Exhibit A and are by this reference made a part hereof. A change in employee classification will affect pay status under the following circumstances.

Section 2, Promotions: When an employee is promoted from one class to another having a higher pay range, he shall receive an increase of not less than one pay step. If an employee's current rate of pay is below the minimum established for the higher class, his pay shall be increased to the minimum rate of the higher class. If the employee's current rate of pay falls within the range of the higher class, his pay shall be adjusted to the next higher step in the range for the higher class which is at least equal to one increment above his current pay rate.

Section 3, Demotions: When an employee is demoted for cause from one class to another having a lower pay range, he shall be placed in a step within the lower range which provides for a reduction in pay of at least one pay step. When an employee is demoted for administrative purposes through no fault of his own, his pay shall be reduced to the maximum rate in the lower pay range, or he shall continue at his current rate of pay, whichever is lower.

Section 4, Layoff: When an employee following layoff is re-employed in the same class from which he was laid off, he shall be placed in the same pay step that he occupied at the time of layoff. When the employee is re-employed in a class having a lower pay range, his rate of pay shall be the same as that which he received at the time of layoff, provided that the pay range is within the range of the lower class; otherwise his rate of pay shall be reduced to the maximum of the pay range of the lower class.

The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the exact amount of such regular membership dues to be deducted. The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders or judgments brought or issued against the Employer as a result of any action taken or not taken by the Employer under the provisions of this Article. The monthly dues remittance shall be accompanied by a list indicating the name, current address, hourly rate of pay, and amount of dues deducted from each employee for whom dues have been withheld noting any additions or deletions from the previous month with a notation as to the reason for the deletion.

In-Grade Pay Increment: An employee shall be eligible for his first in-grade pay increment upon completion of one (1) year of continuous service in the bargaining unit if he enters at the lowest step. Thereafter, an employee will be eligible for an in-grade increment at the employee's anniversary date. The performance of an employee shall be evaluated by his supervisor prior to his being considered for each in-grade pay increment. The employee must have an overall rating of "average" or higher for the in-grade increment to be granted.

Adjustment of Pay: Pay increments shall be made at the beginning of the anniversary date of the qualified employee.
